UTK in Berlin: Social Justice & the Global City

Germany

COST

PROGRAM FEE: $1,269
does not include tuition for 1 credit hour, the study abroad administrative fee or airfare

DESCRIPTION

This interdisciplinary course offers a journey through the tumultuous history and the diverse cultures and art movements of 20th century Berlin. It includes in class film screenings and guest lectures by faculty from different departments. We will explore the complexities of Berlin’s cultural history, present, and future. After a brief historical overview, the course will explore a range of topics related to questions of social justice, (in)equality, and social change: Politics and Revolution, Memory and Memorials Migration and Race, Gender and Sexuality, Environmentalism and Sustainability, Architecture and Gentrification, and, finally Culture and Political Activism.

REQUIREMENTS

• GPA REQUIREMENT: 2.75 and instructor’s permission
• COURSE PREREQUISITE: This is only open to students who completed GERM 416 in spring 2018.

DETAILS

• DATES: May 20– May 30, 2018
• COURSE: GERM 491: Foreign Study
• CREDIT HOURS: 1
• FACULTY MEMBERS:
  Dr. Maria Stehle
  Associate Professor of MFL
  E-MAIL: mstehle@utk.edu
• APPLY ONLINE AT:
  HTTPS://STUDYABROAD.UTK.EDU
• DEADLINE: February 1, 2018